NEW ZEALANDCLOUDY BAY VINEYARDS - MALBOROUGH

Established in 1985 by David Hohnen, Cloudy Bay is situated in the Wairau Valley in Marlborough on New Zealand's South Island and takes its name from the bay at the extremity of the valley named by Captain Cook on his voyage to New Zealand in 1770. The wines produced are exceptional and the Sauvignon is consistently one of the best, however demand is huge and yield relatively small, hence a system of allocation to provide the retailers with a small quantity each year.
